

JOCELYN

The quarters of Maj. Michael J. Lenihan at Fort Shafter were the scene of one of the most important social affairs of the season on the evening of Tuesday, May 4, when Miss Eleanor Lenihan, the charming daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Lenihan of the 2d Infantry, became the bride of 2d Lieut. Douglas Taft Greene of the 2d Infantry.

The entire house was a veritable bower of beautiful flowers tastefully arranged in clusters and festooned from the second floor down into the hallway and along the aisle to the beautifully improvised altar in the parlor, where the ceremony was performed in the most impressive style by Father Ulrich, of the Catholic church of Honolulu.

The odor of stephanotis filled the air as this beautiful vine of sweet scented flowers, fit for the gods, was used throughout in the decorations, and was evidently intended by nature to go hand in hand with brides and orange blossoms. Large clusters of white oleanders were used to soften the lights of the chandeliers, and bride's roses and ferns made the corners appear as parts of fairland.

The 2d Infantry orchestra, stationed on the front lawn, played several appropriate pieces while the guests were assembling, and promptly at 8 o'clock the strains of the wedding march began. Father Ulrich, assisted by Chaplain Ignatius Fealy of the 1st Field Artillery, preceded the wedding party, followed by the groom and his best man, Lieut. Carl A. Hardigg.

Miss Catherine Lenihan, sister of the bride, came next, followed by the groomsmen, Lieuts. Calder, Silvester, Jones, A. K. Lyman, C. B. Lyman and Halloran of the 2d Infantry. The groomsmen formed an arch with drawn sabers, under which entered the bride on the arm of her father.

After the ceremony an elegant buffet lunch was served on the west lawn, where a large table had been prepared. The health and happiness of the bride and groom was pledged many times in the flowing bowl that never approached emptiness.

Dancing was indulged in until a late hour and during the merriment Lieut. and Mrs. Greene made their escape for an unknown destination.

The bride wore a charming gown of white satin and lace. The veil was gracefully arranged with a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Miss Catherine Lenihan, the maid of honor, wore a very becoming gown of green tulle and carried American beauty roses.

Mrs. Lenihan, mother of the bride, was handsomely gowned in black satin.

Mrs. B. W. Atkinson looked charming in a gown of white and green charmeuse.

Mrs. Ernest V. Smith wore an orchid gown with pearl trimmings, and looked very handsome.

Mrs. Bailey of Schofield Barracks was handsomely dressed in black lace.

Miss Carpenter of Schofield Barracks, house-guest of the family, wore a charming frock of pink crepe.

Mrs. Barker was dressed in white chiffon and looked very pretty.

Mrs. Clifford Jones of Fort Kamehameha wore a very becoming costume of old rose.

Miss Halloran wore white decorated with sweet peas.

and Mrs. Jones, Capt. and Mrs. French, Medical Corps; Lieut. Jen. Rins, Maj. Delaney, Capt. and Mrs. Masses, Miss McCormick, Lieut. and Mrs. Zornik, Col. and Mrs. Chestnut, Lieut. Hoffman, Polhemus, Calder, Silvester, Hardigg, Jones, Abraham, Campanole, Camp, Capt. Cullison and Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham entertained "Amazons" cast.

The "Walter Dillingham's Japanese tea garden at Kalahele never looked more beautiful than on Wednesday when the Dillinghams entertained for the "Amazons" cast, of which Mrs. Dillingham was a member, and those who

Miss Greta Shaw Returns.

Miss Greta S. Shaw of Riverside, Cal., was a returning passenger on the steamship Sierra, which brought the congressional party from San Francisco.

Miss Shaw, who has been with Mrs. Ethel M. Taylor, the florist, for more than five years, took a well earned vacation ten months ago and journeyed to her Riverside home among the orange groves of California. Miss Shaw will be welcomed by her many island friends and especially by Olive Branch of the Rebekahs. She returns to Honolulu to make her home with Mrs. Taylor in beautiful Nuuanu valley and to pursue her favorite occupation as a florist. During her stay on the Coast she visited the leading florists' establishments and kept in touch with the new ideas in the line of floral decoration and the arrangement of flowers for all occasions. Having enjoyed the charms of life in Hawaii for so many years, she is rejoiced at making her home again in the Paradise of the Pacific.

Punahou Music Recital Tonight.

A school recital of the Punahou music school will be held this evening in Charles R. Bishop hall at 8 o'clock. These school recitals which have on their programs the advanced pupils taking music at Punahou are given annually and are coming to have an accepted place in the music activities of the city. The numbers this evening include a wide variety of music both instrumental and vocal. Those who know the quality of the work done by Miss Cadwell and Miss Southland are looking forward with pleasant anticipation to this evening's program. The parents and friends of the school and the public are invited to attend this recital.

Lieut. Fales Entertains.

Lieut. E. W. Fales entertained at a prettily appointed dinner on Tuesday evening at Schofield Barracks, before the hop at the Infantry club. Pretty decorations were used for the dining table and in the drawing room. Lieut. Fales had for his guests Miss Betty Case, Miss Elizabeth Landon, Mr. Bert Clark, Lieut. Smith, Lieut. Otis K. Sadtler and Miss S. Merrill chaperoned. The party motored home by moonlight.
